yet this vital information is only written in small print - on the outside of the box and then again in small print within the instructions that are 1000 words long.